THE CANADIAN CONFERENCE OF CATHOLIC BISHOPS has issued a statement marking the 10th anniversary of Bill C-14, Medical Assistance in Dying, on June 17th. In its statement, the CCCB reiterates its opposition to euthanasia and assisted suicide, while calling for renewed commitment to authentic palliative care across the country. The CCCB affirms the profound dignity and value of every human life, emphasizing that true compassion does not answer suffering with death, but accompanies those who suffer with hope, presence, pain relief and authentic palliative care.
